

The Mosaic Art in Sicily

Wednesday, January 25, 2012

Chair: Linda Crescenzi

Sicily, at the crossroads of the Mediterranean, has been enriched by classical cultures from all directions. This presentation will explore some of the island's greatest mosaic art treasures spanning the centuries from Roman mosaics at the Villa Romana to the splendid Norman and Byzantine mosaics found in the island's medieval churches and cathedrals including the Palatine Chapel, Monreale and Palermo Cathedral.

Carol Jonson holds bachelor's and master's degrees in English Literature from Wayne State University in Detroit and did post-graduate work at the University of Detroit in Medieval and Renaissance Literature. She has been an adjunct faculty member at University of Detroit, and at Hodges and Barry universities in Naples.
