The ICS Board has been working through the summer making plans for the coming 2007/2008 season. We hope you will find this surprise summer issue of amici useful in noting the programs you would like to attend. Before we get into the details of what to expect, our newly elected Board would like to extend a very warm welcome to our 51 new members. We hope you will enjoy the coming program of events and that it will help you to grow in your knowledge and appreciation of the beautiful country of Italy. Since we are looking forward to meeting you, please come to a special event for new members and volunteers which is being held in November. amici will keep you posted on the details of this important gathering.

As of May 9, 2007, there are 607 members, 363 household addresses and 247 email addresses in the ICS data base. Many have been with the Society since its infancy when founders Joe Delfino, Edith Coleman and Nick DeRusso (now deceased) met in Edith's living room and conceived the idea of a society focused on the preservation of our rich Italian culture. That was the beginning and now we are looking back on ten years of ICS history. We will celebrate this important milestone with a gala anniversary event at The Club at Pelican Bay on April 6, 2008. Please note the date change from March 15, 2008, as was announced in the spring issue of amici. The Club can accommodate 280 of our members so mark your calendars today to assure you will be among the celebrants.

Co-Chairs Anthony Abbate, Adam Crescenzi, Eileen Iaizzo, and Sue Luconi, their committee, Linda Cardillo, Edith Coleman, Linda Crescenzi and Arlene Diorio with advisor Alessandra Higgs are well into their planning. They are consulting with chefs who will direct the presentation of a fine four course Italian meal. There will also be music and entertainment. amici will give you all the details as they become available so stay tuned.

Italian Cultural Society: The President's Perspective

Cari Amici,

When you receive this amici you may be at your homes in the north or on a vacation. We hope you have safe travels and are looking forward to your summer and fall activities. For many of you who live in Southwest Florida all year we hope you have an enjoyable summer. We are producing this special edition of amici so you will have advance information for planning your attendance at our coming events, which extend from October through April. In this issue of amici we are presenting you with information about our programs, past and present, and a vision for our Society's future direction. The Board works to serve the Society by presenting programs that represent our culture and help us to enjoy and celebrate our Italian heritage. We want you, our members, to be able to take part in as many programs as you can, to provide input and to be as involved in the Society as much as possible.

As you know, we are in the quiet period of our activities within the Italian Cultural Society. Except for the special Summer Luncheon Program arranged by volunteer member Joyce LeCatta for June through September, there are no scheduled events. Other sections of this amici will inform you of the calendar of events the program committee, headed by Joe Delfino and Ron Diorio, is working on and you will read about the Society's needs in accomplishing its goals for the 2007/2008 season. We are planning events that include visual and performing arts; opera and musical entertainment from different regions of Italy; a new seminar series on literature; luncheons and brunches with guest speakers who will speak on historical as well as modern day topics related to Italian culture; an updated cinema series; cooking demonstrations and wine tastings; our tenth anniversary special dinner celebration; and a new event in recognition of our many volunteer workers. There are many opportunities for our members to enjoy the many aspects of our Italian culture, past and present. To help our various committee chairpersons, the Board of Directors is inviting members who are interested in serving on committees to attend a New Member/Volunteer Coffee planned for this fall to discuss the different opportunities to participate in the planning and execution of our events. Look for your invitation and mark the date for the New Member/Volunteer Coffee.

At the April meeting the Board of Directors elected me as President to serve for the next two years. It is an honor for me to be elected and it is my intention to lead the Society to the fulfillment of its mission. In paving the way for the future, it is my hope that The Italian Cultural Society of Naples will be providing the highest quality programs, which explore and provide education in the many facets of Italian culture, of any city in Southwest Florida. I look forward with enthusiasm, promise and high expectations for the next season of the Italian Cultural Society.

Cordiali saluti,

Adam Crescenzi, President

Art Lovers Special

Joint Luncheon Program with Naples Art Association
Monday, October 22

In celebration of Italian Heritage Month, ICS and NAA are teaming up to offer an art presentation by an Italian artist for our combined memberships. The event will be held at The von Liebig Art Center on Monday, October 22. A buffet lunch, provided by an Italian restaurant, will precede the discussion.

Attendance is free to our members and is offered on a first come, first served basis. The von Liebig gallery holds a limited number of guests so we have arranged that up to 50 of our members will be allowed to enter the gallery starting at 11:15 AM. At this time we will have a chance to meet and speak with the artist personally. Although we cannot take reservations, please let us know if you plan to attend by calling the ICS reservation hotline.

Food and Summer Friendship I Ghiottoni Go To Lunch

We hope that members who remain in town for the summer months will take advantage of the summer luncheon program organized by volunteer Joyce LeCatta. The strictly social luncheons have always been very popular and are held June through September. By this time you have received your dining schedules and have been enticed by the mouth-watering menus which Joyce has arranged. Call her at 594-0335 if you have questions.

Food for the Mind La Serie Culturale

La Serie Culturale, our brunch/discussion series, continues this coming season at Stonebridge Country Club with some interesting new topics. Unless otherwise noted, we will use the same format as last year with Sunday brunch at any time between 10:30AM and 12:30PM followed by our discussion in the Magnolia Room, but at 1:00PM instead of 2:00PM. The winter session, beginning in January, will feature five brunch/discussion programs covering a wide range of subjects including the influence of Italian music, notable modern day Italians, a study of a chosen Italian region, a topic of literature and a focus on an era of the country's history. Details of these programs will appear in later issues of amici.

Lunch/Discussion Program Sunday, October 14

ICS will hold a special early bonus program in the Serie Culturale on Sunday, October 14. After lunch at Stonebridge, Art Director Edith Coleman will lead a discussion of 19th century Italian artists. There will be a power point presentation of the artwork presently in the Gilgore Museum of Naples. The Gilgore has the most extensive collection of works by Italian artists of that period in the world. The review of these works will prepare interested members for Director Coleman's guided tour of the museum at a later date. Lunch is priced at $12 to $15 and is served from 11:30AM to 1:00PM in the Stonebridge Country Club dining room. The discussion will start at 1:00PM sharp in the Magnolia Room. There is no prepayment for lunch but reservations are necessary for the free discussion.

Taste and Talk – the Wines of Italy Wine Tasting, Wednesday, November 14

Bacchi, our wine tasting group, is planning three regional tastings this coming season. This year we will focus primarily on a discussion of the tasting wines of the regions we select. Our events will be held at Haskell's Wine Store on Pine Ridge Road. The first event will be on Wednesday, November 14, starting at 5:30 PM. We will have tastings also in January and March with dates still to be set. Attendance will be limited so please reserve as early as possible.

Attenzione!

Chiacchieroni di ICS

As a possible late entry to our calendar, our ever searching and creative program genies have come up with another fantastic program idea. All Italian speaking members who would like the opportunity to join other Italian lovers for an Italian only conversation, be on the look-out for more details about Una Chiacchierata Italiana for the month of November.

HELP! A Call for Volunteers

In order to offer this ambitious program, we need the help of our members. Please consider how you can contribute with your time and talents. If you can help with Program, Public Relations, Hospitality, Web Technology, amici Newsletter or Fund Raising, please contact any Board member whose phone numbers are in your ICS directory. Find out more by attending a coffee we will hold for new members and volunteers in November. The Board of Directors will be present to meet you and answer any questions you may have. A light fare of coffee and pastries will be served. An RSVP invitation will be mailed to invited members when details are finalized.

ICS Opera Lovers, READ THIS!

Did you know that Regal Cinemas is now showing full length operas of live performances filmed at the New York Metropolitan at a ticket price of only $18.00? There is one such location nearby in Ft. Myers. Special satellite and projection equipment is required and is being installed in other selected theaters around the country for these showings. Would you like to see this opportunity come to Naples or Bonita Springs? You can call Regal Entertainment Headquarters in Knoxville, Tennessee at 877-835-5734 to let them know of your interest. The program is called "The Metropolitan Goes to the Movies" and it can play an important role for the future in keeping this special part of Italian culture alive.

Looking Back on 2006/2007 Season

I Medici e il Rinascimento
I Signori Diorio e Luconi

In November ICS introduced its popular wine tasting series which regularly attracted capacity crowds. Also new to the calendar was the expansion of the Serie Culturale which features lectures on a variety of topics. These were also extremely well attended and were preceded by an elective brunch at Stonebridge Country Club. The opera and film series were continued from prior seasons. Besides traveling to Miami's new Ziff Opera House to see Aida, we were able to enjoy opera performances by Naples Opera right here at home. The Cinema Italiano added a bit of excitement to its usual format by starting group discussions about the films following the showings. The ICS Italian language program continued as usual and "ICS Travelers" was introduced with the formation of an internet-based information exchange site for travelers to Italy. So far 40 members have enrolled. If you have not yet taken advantage of this great opportunity, email us at ics.naples@gmail.com to find out how to join. During the winter months we enjoyed having guest lecturers and performances by Italian musical artists who sang for us at the Norris Center. As yet another service to our members, with the cataloguing of books and films which have been collected over the years, we were able to set up an ICS lending library. This intense undertaking was accomplished by Delores Fiano who also took on the job of ICS Librarian. The Society concluded its very successful season with our first regional dinner, "Una Vera Cena Napoletana" at the Royal Wood Country Club. The dining room was appropriately adorned with creative art work on Neaplitian themes, regional flags and favors, all contributing to a colorful and festive atmosphere for all to enjoy. A specially planned meal was served while we were entertained with Italian songs by a roving musician. A superb way to end our busy season!

The language committee is considering new ways to create a stimulating and useful program for our participating students. There are so many reasons to become acquainted with this beautiful living language. Travel, food and wine, literature, art and music to mention just a few.

Delores comes to us with well established credentials and administrative expertise. Thank you, Delores, for accepting this demanding role.
