The Sicilian Tenors bring together three marvelous Tenor voices, each singing his own interpretation of the world's best music in a recital that will be wonderful to experience. Accompanied by a grand piano, the show is perfect for the Moss Hall venue and for our special 25th Anniversary Concert. The Sicilian Tenors will take us on a romantic journey from Hollywood to Broadway to Italy with operatic voices singing a wide variety of marvelous songs and arias, including a newly-composed song in honor of Luciano Pavarotti. Combined with light-hearted fun, this is a concert for all ages and musical tastes. The tenors, Sam Vitale, Elio Scaccio and Aaron Caruso will be accompanied by ICS favorite Music Director Vito DiSalvo.

For special dietary needs, please contact the event Chair at least one (1) week before the luncheon.

SAM VITALE

Sam Vitale is a graduate of the University of Michigan, School of Music, and continued his studies in New York City under the late Maestro Luigi Veccia. Sam has performed the lead tenor roles in Carmen, La Traviata, Rigoletto, The Phantom of the Opera, Don Giovanni (performed in Cortona, Italy), and Pagliacci. Sam is a proud United States Air Force veteran of both Operations Desert Shield & Desert Storm. While in the Air Force, he won first place in the World Wide Tops In Blue Competition, Classical Division.

ELIO SCACCIO

Elio Scaccio, a performing artist, since early childhood, has been singing his entire life. In college, he focused special attention on studying jazz vocal technique and performance. He continued classical training at the renowned Peabody Conservatory at Johns Hopkins. Since that time, he has trained under the supervision of several renowned opera tenors, but he has always maintained his unmistakable pop essence. Elio is a "crossover" performer, singing classical, pop standards, Italian ethnic, and occasionally, vintage rock.

AARON CARUSO

Aaron Caruso has been performing on stage since the age of 6, and attended the world renowned "Interlochen Arts Academy" for high school. He earned his bachelor degree in Vocal Performance with an Italian Minor from the University of Michigan. He speaks four languages fluently, and can sing in seven including Russian, Latin and German. He studied Opera abroad in Italy, and in New York City, with Maestro Luigi Veccia, a student of Marcello and Mario Del Monaco, for 8 years. Aaron also specializes in Classic Neapolitan music.
